

LIST OF ENTRIES

ab, esse (Latin phrase) abduction (n.)
abnormal (adj.)
abortion (n.)
absolute (adj.)
absolute (n.)
absolutely (adv.)
absolutism (n.)
abstract (adj.)
abstract (v.)
abstraction (n.)
abundance, sometimes superabundance (n.) accident (n.)
accidental (adj.)
acedia, sometimes acidia (Latin n.)
acquired (adj.)
act (v.)
act or actuality (n.)
action (n.)
active (adj.)
activity (n.)
act of a man act of being (or act of existence) actual (adj.)
actualization (n.)
actualize or actuate (v.)
ad, esse (Latin phrase) adequate (adj.)
adequate (v.)
aesthetic or aesthetical (adj.)
aesthetics (n.)
aeviternity (n.)
affection (n.)
affective (adj.)
affective key affective knowledge affectivity (n.)
affirm (v.)
affirmation (n.)
a fortiori (Latin phrase)
agape (Greek n.)
agent (n.)
agent intellect aggression (n.)

aggressive (adj.)
aggressiveness, sometimes aggressivity (n.) agnosticism (n.)
akrasia (Greek n.)
alien (adj. or n.)
alienable (adj.)
alienate (v.)
alienation (n.)
Allah (Arabic n.)
Alpha point altruism (n.)
amoral (adj.)
amorality (n.)
amplitude (n.)
anabatic (adj.)
analogate or analogue (n.) analogical or analogous (adj.) analogy (n.)
analysis (n.)
analytic (adj.)
analytic philosophy analytic Thomism
ananoetic (adj.)
angel (n.)
angelic (adj.)
anger (n.)
animal (n.)
animate (adj.)
animism (n.)
annihilate (v.)
antecedent (adj. or n.)
anthropic principle anthropology (n.)
anthropomorphism (n.)
antinomian (adj. or n.)
antinomianism (n.)
antinomy (n.)
anti-perfectionism (n.)
anti-realism (n.)
apodictic (adj.)
apophatic (adj.)
a posteriori (Latin phrase) appearance (n.)
appetite (n.)
applied ethics apprehension or intellection (simple) (n.) a priori (Latin phrase) archetype (n.)

arete (Greek n.)
areteology (n.)
argument (n.)
argumentation (n.)
aristocracy (n.)
Aristotelian (adj. or n.)
Aristotelianism (n.)
art (n.)
artificial (adj.)
aseity (n.)
assemblism (n.)
assent (n.)
assent (v.)
atheism (n.)
attribution, analogy of audacity (n.)
Augustinian (adj. or n.)
Augustinianism (n.)
authenticity (n.)
authority (n.)
autonomy (n.)
avarice or greed (n.)
aversion (n.)
axiology (n.)
axiom (n.)
awe (n.)

bad (adj.)
badness (n.)
basic goods
basic needs or basic human needs be (v.)
beatitude (n.)
Beatitudes, the (n.)
beauty (n.)
become (v.)
begin (v.)
beginning (n.)
being (n.)
being of reason being vs. having being-with-nothingness Biblicism (n.)
biologism (n.)

birth regulation or control

body (n.)

bonum honestum (Latin phrase)

capacity (n.)

capital (adj.)

capital (n.)

capitalism (n.)

capital punishment

capital vices

cardinal virtues

caritas (Latin n.)

Cartesian (adj. or n.)

casuistry (n.)

categorical (adj.)

categorical (adj.)

categorical imperative

category (n.)

catharsis (n.)

catholic (adj.)

Catholicism (n.)

Catholic tradition

causality (n.)

causality, principle of cause (n. or v.)

caution (n.)

central sense

certain (adj.)

certain conscience

certainty or certitude (n.)

chance (adj.)

chance (n.)

change (n.)

change (v.)

change of matter or change of species character (n.)

charity (n.)

chastity (n.)

choice (n.)

Christian (adj. or n.)

Christian ethics

Christianity (n.)

Christian philosophy circumstances (n.)

citizen (n.)

civic or civil society

civil law civil rights clarification (n.)
classical (adj.)
cogitative power cognition or cognitivity (n.)
cognitive (adj.)
coherence (n.)
coherence theory of truth (sometimes coherentism) collectivism (n.)
coming to be command (n.)
commensurable (adj.)
common (adj.)
common good common matter
common sense communicable (adj.)
communicate (v.)
communication (n.)
communion of persons communitarian (adj. or n.)
communitarianism (n.)
community (n.)
community, moral commutative justice compatibilism (n.)
compatible (adj.)
complementarity (n.)
complementary (adj.)
complete (adj.)
complete or perfect society
complete return components of a right composite (adj. or n.)
composition and division comprehensive good compulsion (n.)
concept (n.)
conceptualism (n.)
conclusion (n.)
concrete (adj.)
concupiscence (n.)
concupiscible (adj.)
condition (n.)
conditional (n.)

conflict of rights and dutiesconjugal (adj.)connaturality (n.)connotation (n.)conscience (n.)conscience formation*conscious (adj.)consciousness (n.)consent (n.)consequence (n.)consequent (adj. or n.)consequentialism (n.)conservation (n.)conservatism (n.)consistent (adj.)constitution (n.)constitutive (adj.)construct (n.)consubstantial (adj.)consumerism (n.)contemplation (n.)contingency (n.)contingent (adj.)continuum (n.)contraception (n.)contract (n.)contradiction (n.)contradictoriness (n.)contradictory (adj.)contrariety or contrariness (n.)contrary (adj.)convention (n.)conventionalism (n.)conversion to phantasms*cooperation (n.)cooperation in evil, principles governing*co-principles (n.)correspondence theory of truth*corruption (n.)cosmogony (n.)cosmological (adj.)cosmology (n.)cosmos (n.)country (n.)courage (n.)cowardice (n.)

create (v.)
creation (n.)
creationism (n.)
creative fidelity criminal justice
criteriology (n.)
criterion (n.)
critical realism critical turn culpability (n.)
cultural relativism culture (n.)
culture of death/culture of life custom (n.)

Dasein (German n.)
data of sense, also sense or sensory data death (n.)
death, determination of death penalty
debt (n.)
decide (v.)
decision (n.)
deconstructionism (n.)
deduce (v.)
deduction (n.)
de facto (Latin phrase) definition (n.)
degrees or orders of abstraction deism (n.)
de jure (Latin phrase) deliberate (adj.)
deliberate (v.)
deliberation (n.)
delight (n.)
democracy (n.)
demonstrate (v.)
demonstration (n.)
denial or negation (n.)
denotation (n.)
deny or negate (v.)
deontological (adj.)
deontology (n.)
dependence or dependency (n.)
depersonalization (n.)
depersonalize (v.)

descriptive (adj.)
desirable (adj.)
desire (n.)
desire (v.)
despair (n.)
despair (v.)
destiny, human determinants or sources of morality determinism (n.)
development of doctrine diakonia (Greek n.)
dialectic (n.)
dialectical (adj.)
dianoetic (adj.)
didactic (adj.)
dignity (n.)
direct (adj.)
direct (v.)
direct realism discovery, order of discriminate (v.)
discrimination (n.)
dishonesty (n.)
disobedience (n.)
disorder (n.)
disordered (adj.)
disposition (n.)
distinct (adj.)
distinction (n.)
distinguish (v.)
distributism (n.)
distributive justice divine (adj.)
divine (n.)
divine command ethics divine law docta ignorantia (Latin phrase) double effect, principle of doubt (n.)
doubt (v.)
doubtable or dubitable (adj.)
doubtful (adj.)
doubtful conscience dualism (n.)
dubitable (adj.)
duration (n.)

duty or obligation (n.)

eclectic (adj. or n.)

economic justice

effect (n.)

efficacy (n.)

efficient cause

egalitarian (adj. or n.)

ego (n.)

egoism (n.)

elementary (adj.)

elements (n.)

elicited (adj.)

emanate (v.)

emanation (n.)

eminence (sometimes supereminence) (n.)

emotion (n.)

emotivism (n.)

empathy (n.)

empirical (adj.)

empiricism (n.)

empirical (adj.)

encyclopaedia (n.)

end (n.)

ens (Latin noun-form)

entelechy (n.)

entitative (adj.)

entity (n.)

environment (n.)

envy (n.)

epiphenomenalism (n.)

epiphenomenon (n.)

epistemological pluralism epistemology (n.) or theory of knowledge equal (adj. or n.)

equalitarian, sometimes egalitarian (adj. or n.)

equality (n.)

equanimity (n.)

equity (n.)

equivocal (adj.)

equivocity (n.)

esse (Latin v.)

esse-ab (Latin phrase)

essence, sometimes quiddity (n.)

essential (adj.)

essentialism (n.)

estimative sense eternal (adj.)
eternal law eternity (n.)
ethical (adj.)
ethical egoism ethical relativism ethical theory ethics (n.)
ethics, Christian eudaimonism (n.)
evaluate (v.)
evaluative sense evangelize (v.)
everlasting (adj.)
everlastingness (n.)
evidence (n.)
evident or self-evident (adj.) evil (n.)
evolution (n.)
evolutionism (n.)
excellence (n.)
excellence, freedom for exceptionless moral rules excess and defect
excluded middle, principle of exclusivism (n.)
exemplar (cause) (adj.)
exist (v.)
existence (n.)
existentialism (n.)
ex nihilo (Latin phrase) experience (n.)
explanation, order of extension (n.)
external senses extraordinary means extrinsic (adj.)
extrinsicism (n.)

fact (n.)
faculty (n.)
faith (n.)
faith seeking understanding fallacy (n.)
false (adj.)

falsehood (n.)
family (n.)
family resemblances Fathers of the Church fault (n.)
fear (n.)
federalism (n.)
feeling (n.)
feminism (n.)
fideism (n.)
fidelity (n.)
final cause
final end finality (n.)
finality, principle of finis operantis (Latin phrase) finis operis (Latin phrase) finite (adj.)
finitude (n.)
first (adj.)
first principle Five Ways, the foolhardiness (n.)
foreknowledge (n.)
foresight (n.)
form (n.)
formal (adj.)
formal cause formal logic formal object fortitude (n.)
foundationalism (n.)
free choice freedom, political freedom, religious freedom for excellence freedom of indifference freedom or liberty (n.)
friendship (n.)
frugality (n.)
fulfillment (n.)
function (n.)
fundamental (adj.)
fundamental goods fundamentalism (n.)
future (n.)

gender (n.)
genealogy (n.)
generate (v.)
generation (n.)
genuine good genus (n.)
gift (n.)
gift, law of the gifts of integrity and grace gifts of the Holy Spirit globalization (n.)
gluttony (n.)
gnoseology (n.)
gnostic (adj. or n.)
gnosticism (n.)
God (n.)
going out of being Golden Rule
good (adj.)
good (n.)
goodness (n.)
govern (v.)
government (n.)
grace (n.)
grammar (n.)
greatest happiness principle greed (n.)
guilt (n.)

habit (n.)
habitus (Latin n.)
happiness (n.)
harm (n.)
harm (v.)
hate (n.)
hate (v.)
hatred (n.)
hedonism (n.)
Hellenization (n.)
hermeneutics (n.)
heterodoxy (n.)
heteronomy (n.)
hierarchy of being hierarchy of goods
historicism (n.)

holy or sacred (adj.)
homicide (n.)
homoousios (Greek adj.)
homosexuality (n.)
honest good honesty (n.)
hope (n.)
hope (v.)
horizon (n.)
human (adj.)
human act human being human dignity human good humanism (n.)
human law human nature human person, philosophy of human rights (sometimes basic human rights) Humean (adj. or n.)
humility (n.)
hylemorphism, sometimes hylomorphism (n.)
hypostasis (Greek n.)
hypothesis (n.)

id (n.)
idea (n.)
ideal (adj.)
ideal (n.)
idealism (n.)
identity, principle of ideology (n.)
idolatry (n.)
illative sense illogical (adj.)
illumination (n.)
image (n.)
image of God imagination (n.)
immanence (n.)
immanence, method of immanentism (n.) immaterial (adj.)
imminence (n.)
immobile or immutable (adj.)
immoral (adj.)

immorality (n.)
immortal (adj.)
immortality (n.)
immutable (adj.)
impassible (adj.)
impossibility (n.)
impossible (adj.) in, esse (Latin phrase) inanimate (adj.)
incarnation (n.)
inclination or tendency (n.) inclination, judgment by inclusivism (n.)
incoherence (n.)
incommensurability thesis incommensurable (adj.)
incommunicable (adj.)
incompatibilism (n.)
incompatible (adj.)
incomprehensible (adj.)
incomplete substance inconsistent (adj.)
incorporeal (adj.)
incorruptible (adj.)
inculpability (n.)
inculturation (n.)
inalienable (adj.)
indeterminism (n.)
indifference (n.)
indifference, active or dominating indifference, freedom of indifferentism (n.)
indirect (adj.)
indirect communication individual (n.)
individualism (n.)
individuate or individualize (v.) individuating (adj.)
individuation, principle of indubitable (adj.)
induction (n.)
inequality (n.)
infidelity (n.)
infinite (adj.)
informal logic injustice (n.)

innate (adj.)
innocence (n.)
insight (n.)
instantiation (n.)
instinct (n.)
instrumental (adj.)
instrumentalism (n.)
integral (adj.)
integral Christian wisdom integral human good integral virtue, person of integrity (n.)
intellect (sometimes intelligence) (n.) intellectual (n.)
intellectual affectivity intellectualism (n.)
intellectual virtues intelligent design theory intelligibility (n.)
intelligible (adj.)
intelligible (n.)
intelligible matter intend (v.)
intension (n.)
intention (n.)
intentional (adj.)
intentionality (n.)
interconnectedness of the virtues interest (n.)
interiority (n.)
internal senses
inter-religious dialogue intrinsic (adj.)
intrinsic(ally) evil intrinsic good intrinsicism (n.)
intrinsic worth intuition (n.)
intuitionism (n.)
intuition of being invalid (adj.)
invincible ignorance
involuntary (adj.)
Ipsum Esse Subsistens (Latin phrase)
irascible (adj.)
irreplaceable (adj.)

Islam (Arabic n.)

journey (n.)

joy (n.)

Judaism (n.)

judgment (n.)

judgment of separation

juridical (adj.)

just (adj.)

justice (n.)

justify (v.)

just war theory

Kantian (adj. or n.)

katabatic (adj.)

kataphatic, sometimes cataphatic (adj.)

kenosis (Greek n.)

kerygma (Greek n.)

key, affective

kill (v.)

knowledge (n.)

koinonia (Greek n.)

labor (n.)

language (n.)

law (n.)

legal justice

legal status

liberal (adj. or n.)

liberalism (n.)

liberality (n.)

liberation (n.)

liberation from being liberation theology

libertarian (adj. or n.)

libertarianism (n.)

liberty (n.)

libido (n.)

lie (v.)

life (n.)

life, beginning of life, right to life, sanctity of

limitations of rights

linguistic philosophy

literal (adj.)

literalism (n.)
locomotion (n.)
logic (n.)
logical (adj.)
logical positivism logicism (n.)
logos (Greek n.)
love (n.)
lust (n.)

magisterium (Latin n.) magnanimity (n.)
man (n.)
manifestation (n.)
man of practical reason marital (sometimes conjugal) (adj.) marital and sexual ethics market economy marriage (n.)
Marxist (adj. or n.)
material (adj.)
material cause materialism (n.)
material logic material object mathematics (n.)
matter (n.)
mean (n.)
meaning (n.)
meaning of life means (n.)
measure (n.)
mechanism (n.)
mediating institutions memory (n.)
mental (adj.)
mental word mercy (n.)
merit (n.)
meritocracy (n.)
meta-ethics (n.)
meta-philosophy (n.)
metaphor (n.)
metaphorical (adj.)
metaphysics (n.)
metascience (n.)

methodology (n.)
middle term milieu (French n.)
militarism (n.)
mind (n.)
miracle (n.)
miscarriage (n.)
mixed perfection
mixed science mobile (adj.)
moderate realism modernism (n.)
modes of signification Molinist (adj. or n.)
monism (n.)
monogenism (n.)
monotheism (n.)
mood (n.)
moral (adj.)
moral (n.)
moral community moral good morality (n.)
moral law moral object moral philosophy moral precept moral relativism moral sense moral status moral theology moral virtues
motion or movement (n.)
motive (n.)
movent (n.)
mover (n.)
murder (n.)
Muslim (adj. or n.)
mystery (n.)
mystic (n.)
mystical (adj.)
mysticism (n.)
myth (n.)

narrative ethics nation or country (n.)

nationalism (n.)
natural (adj.)
natural (moral) law
natural family planning natural inclinations naturalism (n.)
naturalistic fallacy natural law theory
natural philosophy natural rights nature (n.)
necessary (adj.)
necessary and sufficient conditions necessity (n.)
negate (v.)
negation (n.)
negative way
Neo-Platonic (adj.)
Neo-Thomism (n.)
New (or Evangelical) Law
new natural law theory nihilism (n.)
nominalism (n.)
non-being (n.)
non-cognitivism (n.)
non-conscious (adj.)
non-contradiction, principle of non-moral good non-reductive physicalism non-voluntary (adj.)
noosphere (n.)
norm (n.)
normal (adj.) normative (adj.)
noumenon (Greek n.)
nutritive (adj.)

obedience (n.)
obediential potency object (n.)
objectification (n.)
objective (adj.)
objective (n.)
objectivism (n.)
objectivity (n.)
obligation (n.)

Ockhamist (adj. or n.)
Old Law
oligarchy (n.)
Omega point
omnipotence (n.)
omniscience (n.)
one and the many, the oneness or unity (n.)
ontological (sometimes ontic) (adj.)
ontological argument ontology (n.)
onto-theology (or onto-theo-logy) (n.) operation (n.)
optimism (n.)
order (n.)
order (v.)
ordered (adj.)
order of discovery
order of explanation ordinary/extraordinary means organ (n.)
organic (adj.)
organism (n.)
original innocence Original Sin
original solitude orthodoxy (n.)
orthopraxis (n.)
otherness (n.)
ownership (n.)

pacifism (n.)
paganism (n.)
pain (n.)
panentheism (n.)
panpsychism (n.)
pantheism (n.)
parenthood (n.)
parenthood, responsible Parousia (Greek n.)
parsimony, principle of part (n.)
participate (v.)
participated theonomy participation (n.)
particular (n.)

particularism (n.)
partnership (n.)
passing away passion (n.)
passive (adj.)
past (n.)
patience (n.)
patriotism (n.)
Patristics or Patrology (n.)
peace (n.)
pedagogical order per accidens (Latin phrase) perceive (v.)
perception (n.)
perennial philosophy or perennial tradition perfect (v.)
perfection (n.)
perfectionism (n.)
perfective (adj.)
perfect society perinoetic (adj.)
permanence (n.)
perplexed conscience per se (Latin phrase)
per se nota (Latin phrase) perseverance (n.)
person (n.)
personal (adj.)
personalism (n.)
personality (n.)
personhood (n.)
pessimism (n.)
phantasm (n.)
phenomenalism (sometimes sensationism) (n.) phenomenology (n.)
phenomenon (Greek n.)
philosophia perennis (Latin phrase) philosophical anthropology philosophical psychology philosophical theology philosophy (n.)
philosophy of God
philosophy of mind
philosophy of nature or natural philosophy philosophy of the human person or human nature physics (n.)

physicalism (n.)
piety (n.)
place (n.)
Platonic (adj.)
pleasant or pleasurable good pleasure (n.)
plenitude (sometimes plentitude) (n.) pluralism (n.)
pluralistic society
political (adj.)
political freedom or liberty political liberalism political realism politics (n.)
polity (n.)
polygenism (n.)
polytheism (n.)
population policy positive law positive sciences positivism (n.)
possibility (n.)
possible (adj.)
possible intellect postmodernism (n.)
potency or potentiality (n.) potential (adj.)
poverty (n.)
poverty of being power (n.)
practical (adj.)
practical reason practical syllogism practical wisdom practice (n.)
praeter intentionem (Latin phrase) praeternatural (sometimes preternatural) gifts pragmatism (n.)
praxis (Greek n.)
preambles of faith precept, moral pre-conscious or pre-cognitive (adj.)
predicament (n.)
predicate (n.)
predicate (v.)
premise (n.)

pre-moral goods
pre-philosophical (sometimes pre-reflective) (adj.)
prescind (v.)
prescriptive (adj.)
prescriptivism (n.)
present (n.)
pride (n.)
prima facie* duty
primary or first (adj.)
primary precepts of natural (moral) law prime matter principal (adj.)
principle (n.)
principle of causality principle of double effect principle of excluded middle principle of finality principle of identity principle of individuation principle of non-contradiction principle of parsimony principle of subsidiarity principle of sufficient reason principle of totality principle of utility principlism (n.)
privacy, right to private (adj.)
privation (n.)
problem of evil problem of universals process thought procreation (n.)
progress (n.)
progressive (adj. or n.)
progressivism (n.)
prohibition (n.)
proof (n.)
proper (adj.)
property (n.)
proportion (n.)
proportionalism (n.)
proportionality, analogy of proportionate reason proposition (n.)
propositional logic

propter quid (Latin phrase) protomatter (n.)
providence (n.)
proximate (adj.)
prudence (n.)
prudentialism (n.)
psyche (n.)
psychological egoism psychology (n.)
public (adj.)
public philosophy or theology punishment (n.)
pure perfection purpose (n.)

qua (Latin prep.)
quality (n.)
quantification (n.)
quantity (n.)
quia (Latin conj.)
quiddity (n.)
quintessence (n.)
quod est vs. quo est (Latin phrases)

race (n.)
racism (n.)
rage (n.)
raison d'être (French phrase) random (adj.)
ratio entis (Latin phrase) rational (adj.)
rational affectivity rationalism (n.)
Rawlsian (adj. or n.)
real (adj.)
realism (n.)
reality (n.)
Real Presence
reason (n.)
receptivity (n.)
rectified appetite rectitude, moral reduction (n.)
reductionism (n.)
reference (n.)
reflection (n.)

reflexivity (n.)
regime (n.)
relation (n.)
relationality (n.)
relativism (n.)
religion (n.)
religious indifference (or indifferentism) religious liberty or freedom religious pluralism remote (adj.)
remotion, way of remotion from matter reproduction (n.)
resolution of concepts
resolve (n.)
resolve (v.)
responsibility (n.)
resurrection (n.)
restitution (n.)
retributive justice reveal (v.)
revealable (adj.)
revelation (n.)
revisionism (n.)
right (adj.)
right (n.)
rightness, moral right reason
rights, limitations of rights, structure of
right to life right to privacy Roman Catholic
rule (n.)
rule (v.)

sacrament (n.)
sacred (adj.)
salvation (n.)
sanction (n.)
sanctity of life sapiential (adj.)
Scholastic (adj. or n.) school (n.)
science (n.)
scientism (n.)

Scotist (adj. or n.)
secondary (adj.)
secular (adj.)
secularism (n.)
secularization (n.)
self (n.)
self-awareness (n.)
self-determination (n.)
self-gift (n.)
selfhood (n.)
self-possession (sometimes self-appropriation) (n.) self-realization (n.)
self-transcendence (n.)
seminal principles semiotics (n.)
sempiternity (n.)
sensation (n.)
sensationism (n.)
sense (n.)
sense (v.)
sense appetite sense or sensory data sensible (adj.)
sensible matter sensitive (adj.)
sensus communis (Latin phrase) sensus plenior (Latin phrase) separate (adj.)
separate (v.)
separation (n.)
seven deadly sins
sex (n.)
sexism (n.)
sexual ethics sign (n.)
signification, modes of signify (v.)
simple (adj.)
simple apprehension simplicity (n.)
sin (n.)
situation ethics skepticism (n.)
sloth (n.)
sobriety (n.)
social (or societal) (adj.)

social contract (theory)
social ethics socialism (n.)
social justice society (n.)
Socratic (adj.)
solidarity (n.)
solitude (n.)
sophism (n.)
sophistry (n.)
sorrow (n.)
soul (n.)
soundness (n.)
sovereignty (n.)
space (n.)
species (n.)
species expressa (Latin phrase) species impressa (Latin phrase) speciesism (n.)
speculative (adj.)
speech, power of spirit (n.)
spiritual (adj.)
spirituality (n.)
spiritual sense
state (n.)
states (or stances) of philosophy [in relation to Christian faith] statism (n.)
status (n.)
stealing or theft (n.)
stewardship (n.)
Stoicism (n.)
structure of rights structure of the human act Suarezian (adj. or n.)
subalternate (adj. or v.)
subconscious (adj.)
subject (n.)
subjective (adj.)
subjectivism (n.)
subjectivity (n.)
subordinate (adj.)
subsidiarity (sometimes autonomy), principle of subsist (v.)
subsistence (n.)
substance (n.)

substantial (adj.)
substantial change suffer (v.)
sufficient condition sufficient reason, principle of suicide (n.)
superabundance (n.)
superdetermination (n.)
superego (n.)
supereminence (n.)
supererogatory (adj.)
supernatural (adj.)
supernatural gifts supersensible (adj. or n.)
superstition (n.)
supposit (n.)
supposition (n.)
syllogism (n.)
symbol (n.)
symbolicism (n.)
sympathy (n.)
symphonic (adj.)
synderesis (Latin n.)
synthesis (n.)
synthetic (adj.)
systematic (adj.)

tautology (n.)
techne (Greek n.)
technology (n.)
Teilhardian (adj.)
teleological (adj.)
teleological structure of human goods teleology (n.)
temperament (n.)
temperance (n.)
temporal (adj.)
Ten Commandments
tendency (n.)
term (n.)
theft (n.)
theism (n.)
theocracy (n.)
theodicy (n.)
theological virtues theology (n.)

theology of the body
theonomy (n.)
theory (n.)
theory of knowledge thing (n.)
third way Thomism (n.)
Thomist (sometimes Thomistic) (adj.)
time (n.)
title (n.)
tolerance (n.)
totalism (n.)
totalitarianism (n.)
totality, principle of tradition (n.)
transcendence (n.)
transcendental (adj.)
transcendental Thomism transience or transitivity (n.) transitivity (n.)
transubstantiation (n.)
Trinity, the (n.)
truth (n.)
truth-conditions
truthfulness (n.)
truth-value turpitude, moral tyranny (n.)

ultimate end ultimate practical judgment uncaused (adj.)
uncertain (adj.)
uncertainty (n.)
unconscious (adj.)
unconscious (n.)
unconsciousness (n.)
undergo or suffer (v.)
understanding (n.)
understanding of faith
unethical (adj.)
unicity (n.)
unity (n.)
unity (or interconnectedness) of the virtues universal (adj. or n.)
Universal Declaration of Human Rights universal destination of goods

universalism (n.)

universals, problem of

univocal (adj.)

unjust (adj.)

unmoved (adj.)

unnatural (adj.)

use (n.)

use (v.)

useful good usury (n.)

utilitarian (adj. or n.)

utilitarianism (n.)

validity (n.)

value (n.)

value (v.)

value neutrality

vegetative (sometimes nutritive) (adj.)

vengeance (n.)

vice (n.)

vices, capital

violence (n.)

virtual (adj.)

virtue (n.)

virtue epistemology virtue ethics

virtues, cardinal

virtues, intellectual virtues, moral virtues, theological vitalism (n.)

volition (n.)

voluntarism (n.)

voluntary (adj.)

war (n.)

wealth (n.)

Weltanschauung (German n.)

whole (n.)

will (n.)

will (v.)

will to power

wisdom (n.)

wisdom, integral Christian Wisdom literature

woman (n.)
wonder (n.)
word (n.)
work (n.)
world (n.)
world (or global) community world religions worship (n.)
worth (n.)
wrong (adj.)
wrongness, moral x (as a logical symbol) xeno- (particle)

Yahweh (Hebrew n.)

zeal (n.)
Zeitgeist (German n.)
zygote (n.)